

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 66-1924.

J. A. Magill.

Three Mile Creek.

November 15, 1923.

-----

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, J. A. Magill, whose home office is at Anchorage, Alaska, is hereby authorized to engage in the catching and salting of salmon for commercial purposes at Three Mile Creek, within the Cook Inlet District of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1924, under the following conditions:

1. That the permittee may operate one trap on Site No. 1, known as the "Long Shorty Trap," approximately 4,000 feet south of Three Mile Creek, on the west shore of Cook Inlet.

2. That the permittee may pack not to exceed fifty (50) tierces of king salmon and fifty (50) barrels of red salmon and prepare three (3) tons of miscellaneous salmon for dog feed. The balance of the salmon taken in the trap allotted may be sold as fresh fish or to canneries in the Cook Inlet District.

3. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

4. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

S. B. DAVIS

Acting Secretary of Commerce.
